

Your pension statement, everything at a glance!

If you are accruing pension with us, you would have received your pension statement from us not so long ago. In this overview, you can see the amount of pension you can anticipate receiving. It also outlines what your partner and children will be entitled to in the event of your death. Quite convenient!

What do we ask of you?

Examine your pension statement closely. It is not just about seeing how much pension you're accumulating. We also ask you to verify your information. If you find any discrepancies, please inform us. You can read more about the statement and what actions to take in our latest newsletter. Alternatively, watch our informative video on the pension statement.

Want to know more?

Do you have a question about your pension or your pension statement? Please do not hesitate to contact us. You can find our contact information here. We are always ready to provide assistance.